When to Use

Our stacking boat toys are ideal for children aged 6 months to 5 years, making them a perfect choice for toddlers learning to grasp and build. Use them during bath time to turn a daily routine into a learning adventure or take them along to the beach for added fun with sand and water play.

What Makes Our Boat-Shaped Stacking Cups Special?

Unlike ordinary bath toys, our boat-shaped stacking cups come with a unique design that encourages color recognition, motor skills, and imaginative play. The ability to scoop and strain water adds a delightful surprise that keeps your little sailor engaged and eager to learn. Each set includes multiple pieces, allowing your child to explore and create different configurations.

Benefits

- Enhances hand-eye coordination and fine motor skills.
- Stimulates color recognition and cognitive development.
- Encourages imagination and creative play scenarios.
- Safe for all ages, with smooth edges and non-toxic materials.
- Perfect for both indoor and outdoor play.
